Monthly update

In May, the total return (change in NAV plus distribution) per unit was 1.4%. This marks a 5.2% total return since the beginning of the year. The Underlying Fund declared a distribution of 0.0131 per unit which is in line with the distribution target of RBA+4% per annum. Interest income continues to be the main contributor, adding 91bps to the total return, while price contributed an additional 58bps. Performance was bolstered by an overweight to the European market, which provided better returns relative to the US loan market. Regarding risk positioning, single-B assets contributed 98bps, slightly offset by assets rated triple-C and below. In terms of sectors Health Care, Consumer Services and IT services contributed 26bps to the total return for the month. The weighted average price of the underlying assets in the portfolio is 97.3, and the current portfolio yield is 10.3%.

The Underlying Fund added new direct credit positions to the Portfolio including a leading global nursery childcare provider based in the UK; a US-based dental support organization; the 4th largest locum tenens platform in the US; and one of the leading manufacturers and providers of fire safety equipment and solutions in France.

On syndicated credit, the Underlying Fund invested in a series of new primaries. These include one of the largest frozen baked-goods producers in Spain; a German low-budget hotel chain; and a leading US provider of diversified infrastructure and environmental services.

Market activity

In May, the US and European loan markets returned 0.94% and 1.31% respectively<sup>2</sup>, recording the highest monthly gain since January while outperforming bonds year-to-date. The secondary market rally pushed prices to its highest levels in two years, with the average bid reaching 96.93 in US and 98.12 in Europe.

The robust performance of the asset class was bolstered by the higher interest-rate environment and technical support from the CLO market, with a record issuance of USD 23 billion in the US and EUR 6 billion in Europe for the month. Acquisition activity is gradually picking up, though repricing continues to dominate deal flow, reaching new record levels and widening further the technical imbalance between supply and demand.
